Magazine Accuses CIA of Iran Plot

An anti-espionage publication has accused the United States of plotting to intervene in Iran and has published a list of Americans and Iranians with alleged CIA connections.

Counterspy magazine, which went out of business last year, plans to return with an article on alleged CIA-Pentagon plans to restore Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi to power.

The publication, in a press release, said yesterday the CIA and Pentagon are planning a "coup or some such action" in Iran to restore Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi to power.
